Little Cedar & Marshall Churchmouse

1 Corinthians 1:10-15,17

<sup>10</sup> Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose. <sup>11</sup> For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters. <sup>12</sup> What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." <sup>13</sup> Has Christ been divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I baptized none of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> so that no one can say that you were baptized in my name. — <sup>17</sup> For Christ did not send me to baptize but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

Greetings Marshall and Little Cedar Lutheran Churches!!

We don't know all the details, but apparently the Corinthians are squabbling with each other. Despite the fact that they are all baptized in the name of Christ, they continue to create divisions among themselves. Paul urges them to set aside their differences, be in agreement, with no divisions among them. Paul tells them that their bickering is taking them away from their true calling, and that is to proclaim the Good News of Christ crucified and risen.

In August, the ELCA Churchwide Assembly met in New Orleans. Among all their work, they approved a document called Declaration on the Way. For about 50 years now, Lutherans and Catholics have been in dialogue with each other; discussing common ground that we hold and differences that we still have. This unique ecumenical document draws on those 50 years of dialogue. This document approved by both churches marks one step closer in the direction of unity within the church.

Certainly, I don't think we will all agree on everything, but continued conversations and working towards understanding and mutual respect is a step in the right direction. In the unity of the Body of Christ, the message of the Good News will be heard. To learn more, you can visit <https://www.elca.org/Declaration-on-the-Way>

Peace, Pr. Jeremy

"I think then that the one goal of all who are really and truly serving the Lord ought to be to bring back to union the churches which have at different times and in diverse manners divided from one another."

To join in the effort, we will be meeting out at the Adams Park on Sunday, September 25th to clean and stain the shelter. Quilters meet at Little Cedar
Tuesday, September 6th
 @ 1:00pm

August has already come and gone! We had a new little girl start and had one friend leave because of starting kindergarten. The weather has been beautiful so we have gotten a lot of outside time. We received our curriculum and the kids are pretty anxious to start learning again! Our whole daycare was painted by church members, Isaac and Susan Ydstie, who volunteered their time. It looks amazing and we are so fortunate to have a wonderful community.
