Little Cedar & Marshall Churchmouse

Greetings Little Cedar and Marshall Lutheran Churches!

1 Corinthians 12: 4-13

⁴There are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit. ⁵There are different kinds of service, but the same Lord. ⁶There are different kinds of working, but the same God works all of them in all men. ⁷Now to each one the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good. ⁸To one there is given through the Spirit the message of wisdom, to another the message of knowledge by means of the same Spirit, ⁹to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by that one Spirit, ¹⁰to another miraculous powers, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues, and to still another the interpretation of tongues. ¹¹All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, and he gives them to each one, just as he determines. ¹²The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body. So it is with Christ. ¹³For we were all baptized by one Spirit into one body--whether Jews or Greeks, slave or free--and we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴Now the body is not made up of one part but of many.

We are each given different gifts to work in church. We are each called to work in the church in a variety of ways, with no one gift better than another. There are many parts, but they form one body; the body of Christ.

As a church we are called to be the body of Christ to the world. We are called to proclaim the Gospel, worship with Christ as the center, nurture each other in faith, and reach out to those in need, the community, the world and all of creation.

This work is a work that can't be done alone, but is a work that we do together as the church. As we embark together into the busyness of the school year, Sunday school, confirmation, Friends & Fellowship, other programs, and holiday season, I look forward to the work that we will do together. I hope that we can embolden, encourage, and empower each other that share our gifts as we gather together as the body of Christ. So as we venture together this year, I encourage you to share your gifts with the church as you feel called by God. It is a gift to the church, the community, and the world.

In Christ,

Pr. Jeremy

A message from Barb Hoffert ~

I do feel extremely fortunate having spent several years in Adams. I'll never be able to specifically thank so many people for many years of friendship. I'll always have a special place in my heart for the memories I accumulated over the years. My only regret is leaving so soon after Pastor Jeremy and family arrived. He is an answer to a prayer.....

Cemetery News

The website, www.findagrave.com, is being used to preserve information from the Little Cedar Cemetery. Findagrave is a free website that currently has over 103 million grave records. On this site, people may create a memorial page for an individual, post pictures, biographies, plot numbers, flowers, links to family members, GPS coordinates and other pertinent information.

I am currently looking for obituaries/biographies of any person who is buried in the Little Cedar Cemetery to add to the Findagrave site, especially the older members. If you want to check the site to see if there is already an obituary/biography posted, you may do that before submitting one to me. I would prefer the obituaries/biographies through email (jstephenson@myclearwave.net), but a printed copy would be good, too. You can leave it with Kathy in the office.

There is also a Little Cedar Cemetery website that I have created: www.littlecedarcemetery.org. This site includes a little background on the church and cemetery, a church timeline, cemetery map and directory, and some miscellaneous records that are still a work in progress. There is also a contact form on the site, if anyone needs to contact me.

Thanks for your help! Janet Stephenson, Little Cedar Cemetery Secretary

Linda Gilles, Council Secretary

Let's Get Involved!!!!

Would you like to be involved in leading worship?!? Do you enjoy worship? Are you curious about worship? Do you enjoy chanting the liturgy? Do you enjoy speaking the liturgy? If you would be interested at all, please join Pastor Jeremy on Sunday, September 15th at 8:30 before worship at Little Cedar and after worship at Marshall to visit about the role of the assisting minister and to learn more about our worship practices. Feel free to catch him at some other time if you're not able to make it.

ASSISTING WITH WORSHIP

This could be FUN!

Do you have a great idea for a children's message? Or perhaps you have no ideas for a children's message, but you want to find out how to get one? If you would be interested, please see Pastor Jeremy for details. He would love to have others involved in children's messages, and would be happy to give guidance in any way that he can!!

An Introduction to Bishop Steven Delzer

The first of September, 2013, marks the beginning of the term for the new bishop of the Southeastern Minnesota Synod, ELCA. Rev. Steven (Steve) Delzer was elected by the Synod Assembly on June 8 on the fifth ballot (more on the process at semnsynod.org/how-do-we-elect-a-bishop).

"I am deeply humbled at being elected. My prayer is that the Spirit will guide us, so that together our eyes and ears may always be open to the ways in which we may be the body of Christ in the world," said Delzer.

At the time of election, he served as lead pastor of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Faribault, Minn., a call that began in 2002.

His ministry in this synod has included facilitating the monthly meeting of interim pastors and conducting initial interviews of those desiring to enter candidacy for rostered ministry in the ELCA.

Our Savior's, Faribault, was the first site of a Sudanese ministry in this synod. Delzer helped their ministry develop and served as mentor to their leader, Wal Reat, as he journied through the TEEM (Theological Education for Emerging Ministries) program. Reat was ordained in March 2013.

Rev. Delzer previously served as an interim pastor at Zion Lutheran Church, West Union, Iowa and First Lutheran Church, Albert Lea, Minn. Prior to 2000, he served congregations of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in Maryland, Missouri, and Minnesota.

He earned an Associate of Arts degree from Concordia College (now University) in St. Paul, Minn., in 1969; a Bachelor of Arts degree from Concordia Senior College (now Concordia Theological Seminary) in Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1971; and a Master of Divinity degree from Christ Seminary—Seminex in 1975.

Steve and his wife Donita live in Faribault. They have three adult children and five grandchildren.

If you have not had occasion to meet Steve as a pastor, you may have seen him running past you or out on the golf course. He believes in living a healthy life and modeling it for others. He stays active in tennis, biking, golf, and running (including seven marathons, six half-marathons, and three relay marathons over the last twelve years). Steve also nurtures his well-being through devotion time, reading, and several collegial and support groups.

Rev. Delzer has spent the summer finishing his call in Faribault and preparing for his new call as bishop. As he looks ahead to his call to bishop, he says, "I am looking forward to becoming better acquainted with the pastors and congregations of the synod, getting to know other bishops, and learning more about the wider church."

At the same time, he acknowledges the challenges of the role. He hopes to be able to do the job well and continue living a balanced life and modeling it for the rest of the synod.

How can you help as the synod prepares for this transition? He asks that members of the synod be willing to share their gifts and abilities for the good of ministry in southeastern Minnesota. Most of all, though, Delzer requests, "Pray for me." He adds, "I never would have been willing to accept this call without knowing the spirit is leading and people are praying."
