Luke 5:27-36 ~ Love for Enemies

<sup>27</sup> "But to you who are listening I say: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>28</sup> bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>29</sup> If someone slaps you on one cheek, turn to them the other also. If someone takes your coat, do not withhold your shirt from them. <sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you, and if anyone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back. <sup>31</sup> Do to others as you would have them do to you.

<sup>32</sup> "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. <sup>33</sup> And if you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do that. <sup>34</sup> And if you lend to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, expecting to be repaid in full. <sup>35</sup> But love your enemies, do good to them, and lend to them without expecting to get anything back. Then your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High, because he is kind to the ungrateful and wicked. <sup>36</sup> Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Greetings Marshall and Little Cedar Lutheran Churches!!

Loving your enemies. This is easier said than done. As I look around our society, nation and world, there seems to be so much hatred being passed around. I find it to be so discouraging and disheartening. It can be incredibly easy to fall into the same patterns of hatred. When someone mistreats us, it can be so easy to show the same harsh treatment in return.

However, that is not the kind of life that Christ calls us to. We are called to travel the more difficult path. When someone calls us a name, we are to respond with sympathy and respect. We are to find common ground and work towards mutual respect and understanding. We are called to the more difficult path. "If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them."

Martin Luther King Jr. said, "Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that." There couldn't be truer words than that. Hate can only beget more hate. It becomes a vicious cycle. Instead we must stop hate in its tracks. We must respond to hate with love. We must respond to brutality with mercy. We must respond to with cruelty with kindness. That is the only way to put an end to hate, is with love.

Daycare News July 2019

How is summer almost over?? This month we had a fun water day with a pool, sprinkler, squirters and splash pad. We also gained a new family with 3 Children enrolled! We have been enjoying new books and toys that were donated by a couple families. We have also spent A LOT of time outside! We still keep on routine a little bit but the kids are doing great with creative play together. Only a couple more weeks until school starts! We received a grant from Freeborn-Mower for $500 for a new outside shed. That will be nice to keep all of our toys safe from the weather changes. The computer stopped working so we had to purchase a new laptop. Trying to get everything switched over is hard work! We are also looking for Thrivent cards to help replace the carpet in our baby room as it has worn down so much. Lots of changes happening and we are excited to embrace them!

Vacation Bible School News

We had a great week back in June with 75 kids and 23 helpers (both up from last year).

With the help of EP3-20, we learned how to Go Beyond with God & Boldness, Faith, Kindness, Thankfulness and Hope. Our verse was: Glory to God, who is able to do far beyond all that we could ask or imagine by his power at work within us! Ephesians 3:20.

Thank you to everyone who helps make the week possible. Each and every one of you is greatly appreciated.

God's love and blessings,
Tara Mandt ~ Education Director

Marshall Lutheran Church ~ July 10, 2019 ~ Council Meeting

Luke 17: 11-19

11 Now on his way to Jerusalem, Jesus traveled along the border between Samaria and Galilee. 12 As he was going into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him. They stood at a distance 13 and called out in a loud voice, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!" 14 When he saw them, he said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were cleansed. 15 One of them, when he saw he was healed, came back, praising God in a loud voice. 16 He threw himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him—and he was a Samaritan. 17 Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? 18 Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" 19 Then he said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."
