1 Corinthians 1:1-9

¹ Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, ² to the church of God that is in Corinth, to those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, together with all those who in every place call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours: ³ Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, ⁵ for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind ⁶ just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you ⁷ so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁸ He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

GREETINGS LITTLE CEDAR AND MARSHALL LUTHERAN CHURCHES,

It is officially fall! And so it is that time of the year again for parents to be thinking about Halloween costumes for their kids, and... maybe for us adults as well. As we approach Halloween, we also remember it as All Hallows Eve, or All Saints Eve. Halloween is of course always on October 31st and then All Saints is celebrated on November 1st . In the church, we then celebrate All Saints on the following Sunday. As we gather to celebrate All Saints Sunday, we are reminded of the beautiful truth that we are part of a much larger family—those saints who have come before us and those who surround us today. Paul's words in 1Corinthians 1:1-9 are a reminder to give thanks for the community of believers. He speaks of the grace given to us in Christ, how we are enriched in every way, and how God has equipped us to live out our calling. Just as Paul thanked God for the Corinthians, we too give thanks for the saints in our community, both past and present. Each of us plays a role in God's unfolding story. Our community is enriched by the faith, wisdom, and gifts of each person, and together, we reflect God's love and grace to the world. Let us pause to remember the saints who have inspired us, and let us give thanks for the ways we continue to grow and serve together. Through Christ, we are strengthened as one body, called to share His love and grace. Let us be thankful for the gift of our church family and for the ways God is at work among us.

Blessings Pr. Jeremy

Halloween Party

By: KENN NESBITT

We're having a Halloween party at school. I'm dressed up like Dracula. Man, I look cool! I dyed my hair black, and I cut off my bangs. I'm wearing a cape and some fake plastic fangs. I put on some makeup to paint my face white, like creatures that only come out in the night. My fingernails, too, are all pointed and red. I look like I'm recently back from the dead. My mom drops me off, and I run into school and suddenly feel like the world's biggest fool. The other kids stare like I'm some kind of freak—the Halloween party is not till next week.
