Luke 2:25-35

²⁵Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" ²⁶He said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" ²⁷He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." ²⁸And he said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live."

²⁹But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" ³⁰Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. ³¹Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. ³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. ³⁴He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

³⁵The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.' ³⁶Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" ³⁷He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Greetings Little Cedar and Marshall Lutheran Churches!

I dare ya! Last year I challenged you to read the Gospel of Mark during Lent. Well, this year during worship we will hear many of our Gospel readings from Luke. Therefore, I give you the even bigger challenge of reading the Gospel of Luke during lent this year! Luke is 24 chapters long, and so that means you'll have to read just more than half a chapter each day.

Of course, some say that Luke is the best Gospel. Everyone has his or her favorite Gospel. And Luke was in fact a very good author. In many ways he was a very eloquent writer, and gives a well-crafted account of Jesus' life. Luke has a few passages that you can't find in the other Gospels.

For example, the parable of The Good Samaritan. You can never go wrong with this parable. It is a teaching from Jesus that I'm sure captured the imagination of its readers centuries ago, and still captures our imaginations today. No matter where we find ourselves, we encounter people and know people who we may not consider or want to be our neighbors. Everyone is challenged to show kindness to the "neighbors" in their life.

We are always challenged by scripture. We are pushed beyond our comfort zone and pushed to take risk. We are encouraged to show compassion and mercy to those we encounter. We are challenged to share God's great love for the world. That is the nature of Jesus, and the message we hear in scripture.

Peace,

Pr. Jeremy

Lenten Challenge. I dare ya!

We invite you during the season of Lent to read through the Gospel of Luke. The Gospel of Luke is our assigned Gospel for this church year, and so we will hear many of our Gospel readings on Sunday from Luke. You have two options.

Number 1. Bring home the reading plan bookmark included with your bulletin, put it in your Bible, and put your Bible somewhere that you won't forget.

Number 2. Sign up for the Bibl-E-Study if you haven't already. During Lent, an email will be sent out each morning with the assigned reading for the day. Along with a little fun, as always! Enjoy!

Adult Education Opportunity

Islam, Yesterday and Today**

Especially with the current situations in the world, many questions arise about Islam and the central beliefs of Islam. With that, Pastor Jeremy will be hosting an adult education on Wednesday evenings during Lent. Please join him on February 10th, February 24th, and March 9th from 5:00 to 6:00 at Little Cedar. We will look at the history of Islam, their central beliefs and practices, and touch on some of the current complexities. You are then invited to stick around for the Lenten soup supper and worship. This will be a fairly casual time so please come when you can.

We haven't been able to get outside too much this month because of the frigid temperatures we have been having. Hopefully the sun will stay warm in the coming months! We are collecting gallon milk jugs for building an igloo so if you are looking for a new way to recycle them, we will take them off your hands! We will be needing about 250. We would like to welcome our new custodian, Al Fasbender. We look forward to working with you!!

Called all thespians! or anyone who is willing to read a script. During Wednesday Lenten services we will once again be hosting a series of skits. This year Judas Iscariot will be put on trial; "The People vs. Judas Iscariot." After having betrayed Jesus, we will decide the fate of Judas Iscariot. Shall he be forgiven or shall he receive judgment? As usual, the skits are fairly simple. All that is required is to read through the script a couple times on your own, then to check in with each other during soup supper on the night of the skit to work out any final details. So if you'd be willing to help out, please let Pastor Jeremy or the office know. Thanks!!
